Tosefes Shabbos Initiative

There are members among our community struggling with illness. In times like these, we turn to the power of unity.

With permission from Rabbi Hess, we are launching a special initiative called Tosefes Shabbos. It will be a collective effort to bring light and give strength and healing to those who need it most.

We invite you to join us in committing to light Shabbos candles ten minutes early, as a zechus for a Refuah Shelaima for all the sick members of our community.

Every candle lit with intention, no matter how small that seems, can make a profound difference. If you would like to join this meaningful endeavor, please reach out to me directly. Your participation will remain completely confidential. Steve Moskowitz

I want to thank Ariella Zumdorfer and Malka Gross for taking the initiative to do this for us. Jeff

The Shiur is conducted by Rabbi Zvi Hoff of the Highland Park Kollel Baal Habatim. The class has been meeting since 2018 but you can jump in anytime. Among the topics discussed: the laws of Basar V'Chalav (meat and milk), the laws of Taaruvos (mixtures), the laws of Avodas Kochavim (interacting with non-Jews in a variety of circumstances) and the laws of Nedarim (vows), Ketivat Sefer Torah (Laws pertaining to Writing a Sefer Torah), Dinai Mezuzah (Laws of mezuzah). The class is fascinating and very enjoyable (with plenty of schmooze). If you're interested or would like to find out more, please contact Norman Schwartz at normanschwartz319@gmail.com or call 732.522.3121.

YIEB CSS NEEDS YOUR HELP

As our community returns to "normal", YIEB CSS has reinitialized its activities. For the summer, we have security leads assigned for indoors. We plan on being fully back in place come September. However, over the course of the past year and a half we have lost a number of CSS members - both regular members and leads. Our ability to provide the security you deserve depends on community support.

CSS NJ training is online but for the last class. To express your interest please email ContactCSS@YIEB.org or speak with Alan Wolkoff, Alan Hader, or Norm Finkelshtein.

WOMEN'S TEHILLIM GROUP MEETING

Please join us, weekly, on Monday evenings at 7:15 pm on zoom. Together we read all of the Tehillim on behalf of the Shul's Refuah Shelaima list. You may read in Hebrew or English. To get on the list of readers, contact Sarita Sragow at ssragow@verizon.net.

SHIDDUCH CORNER:

We all know Jewish men and women who are looking to meet their life's partner. We all can play an important role in their quest. I have 3 words for you: networking, networking, networking. I encourage all of you, married and single, to look around you: your workplace, your community, your synagogue, your family, your social crowd, your children's teachers, your cousin's brother-in-law and your best friend's aunt, and ask yourselves whether you are in a position to make an introduction.

We all know more singles than we realize, and if we have in mind the notion that we can be the bridge between 2 people, our eyes will be opened to possibilities. Let's do this with respect and dignity for single men and women, with a sense of enthusiasm for the outcome, and with the creativity that has characterized our people. If you are too shy to play matchmaker or think it is not in your nature, then think of an idea and ask someone else to implement it.

Let us Know about your Simcha!

Please email eventmanager@yieb.org or complete our online form - <https://www.yieb.org/form/Room/Event-Request-Form.html> - with the date of your upcoming onsite or off-site simcha so that it can be added to the shul calendar. This will help in preventing potential conflicts with the simchas of other member families.

MAXIMIZE YOUR SIMCHA!

After the Simcha is over, there is usually a good amount of leftover food. We are happy to distribute that food to families who could benefit from it. What a beautiful way to end your Simcha by performing this Mitzvah. Please contact Miriam Greenstein at miriamgreenstein@aol.com in order to make these arrangements. Thank you!!!

STORK CLUB

The Stork Club helps to arrange a week of meals to be delivered to families after the birth of a baby. Please contact Malka Gross at smkgross@yahoo.com or call/text 917-423-5442 if you need meals set up. Thank You!

CANDY BAGS

Candy bags for your special Simcha must be ordered from the YIEB Sisterhood. Please call Shelley Goldman 908.421.1103 for further information.

Bereavement Group

To better serve our community, EBJC is in the process of creating a bereavement group.

If you, or someone you know might benefit from this group, please reach out to us. There is no set time frame for healing; whether you experienced the death of a loved one recently or a while ago, please know that you are welcome. You do not have to be a member of EBJC to participate.

If you are interested, please call Taryn Webber at (732) 595-8617 or email tkwebber4@gmail.com. You can expect a response within 48 hours.

REAL STORIES OF DISCOVERY,
RETURN, AND INSPIRATION

New Refuah Shelaimah List Procedure

Beginning on Monday September 14, 3rd Tishrei, the process for submitting and removing names from the YIEB ShulCloud Refuah Shelaimah list will change. All names currently on the list will be unavailable as part of an effort to create a new database.

A new submissions page will be available as of the 14th for adding names and requesting future removals. It can be found at YIEB.org in the current location under Members.

To make the process easier, our secretary, Davii, has created a short video explaining the changes. Please click here to view it.

Please submit names by Thursday, September 24th, so that your Refuah names will be included in the initial database and on the first version of the new weekly list. Before submitting, please check that each name is spelled correctly and that there are no duplicates.

We strongly encourage submitting only the names of close family members and friends. Each name is read aloud during the Tehillim meeting and we have limited time to recite them all.

If you regularly submit names for the list, we warmly invite you to participate occasionally in the group Tehillim recitation, either on Zoom or privately. This is a request, not a requirement, but we would be glad to include you whenever you are able.
